

TITLE

Front Cover
Image of
Main Character

Written and Illustrated by Francesca Veal

7 inches

9 inches

What are the bees making in the hive today?

Honey!

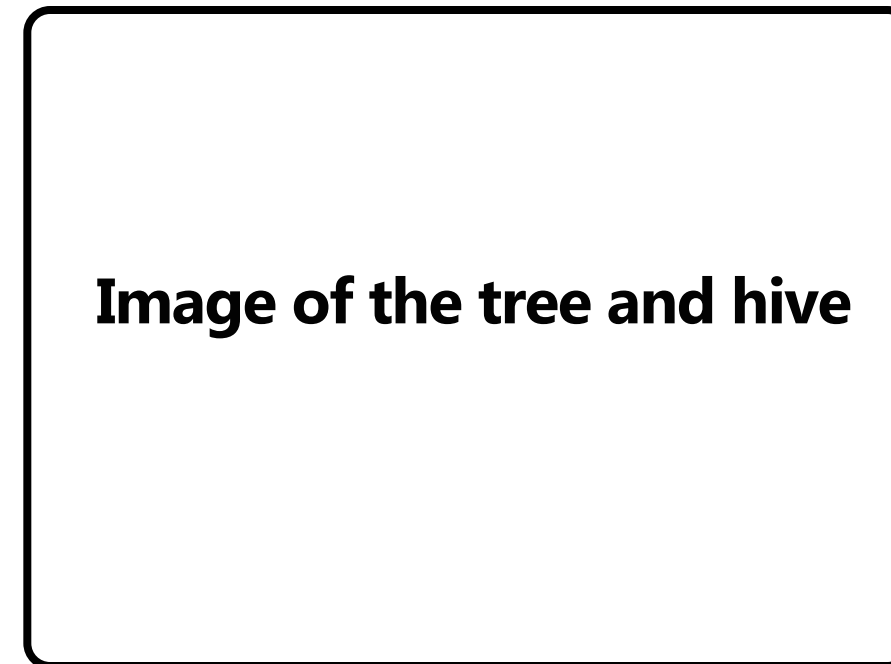

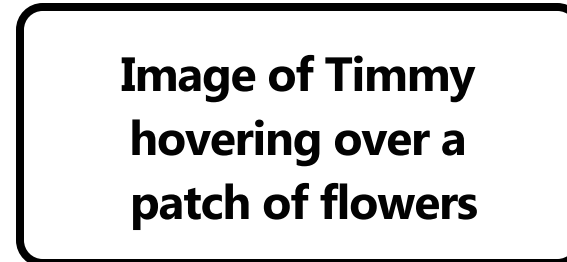

Image of the tree and hive

Everyone in the hive helps out to make the honey.

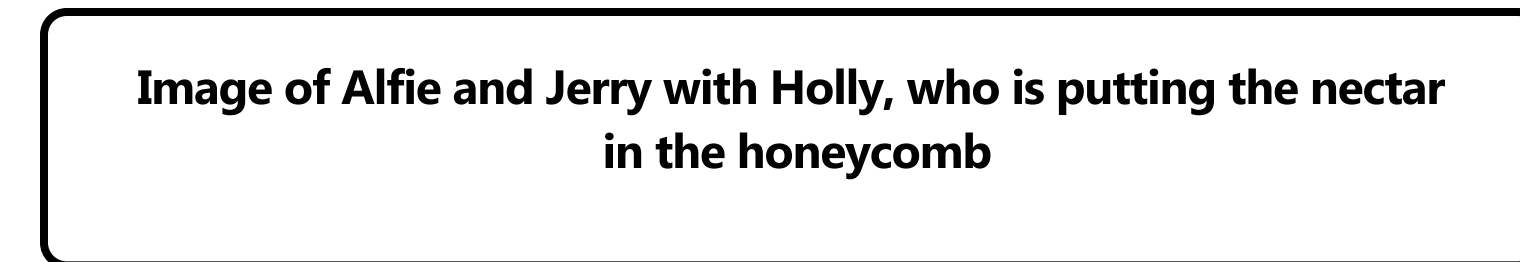

Timmy flies to find a big patch of flowers.

Sally joins Timmy and they do a bee dance to point the other bees to the tasty nectar!

Alfie and Jerry collect nectar from the flowers and fly back to the hive.

Alfie and Jerry pass the nectar to Holly the house bee, who puts it in the honeycombs of the hive.

But where is Barry?
Barry needs to cover the honeycombs to protect the honey!

Barry doesn't want to help, Barry wants to play instead.

Image of Barry playing

At dinner time, everyone is sad.
"Barry, there is no honey for dinner because you didn't help out today!"
Said Mummy bee. "We bees work as a team, and everyone needs to do their part!"

Image of bees all sat around a table looking sad.
Mother bee stood with Barry.

Barry bee is sad. The other bees are angry and Barry bee.

The next day, Timmy flies to find a big patch of flowers. Sally joins Timmy and they do a bee dance to point the other bees to the tasty nectar!

Alfie and Jerry stoo with Holly who is putting the nectar in the honeycomb

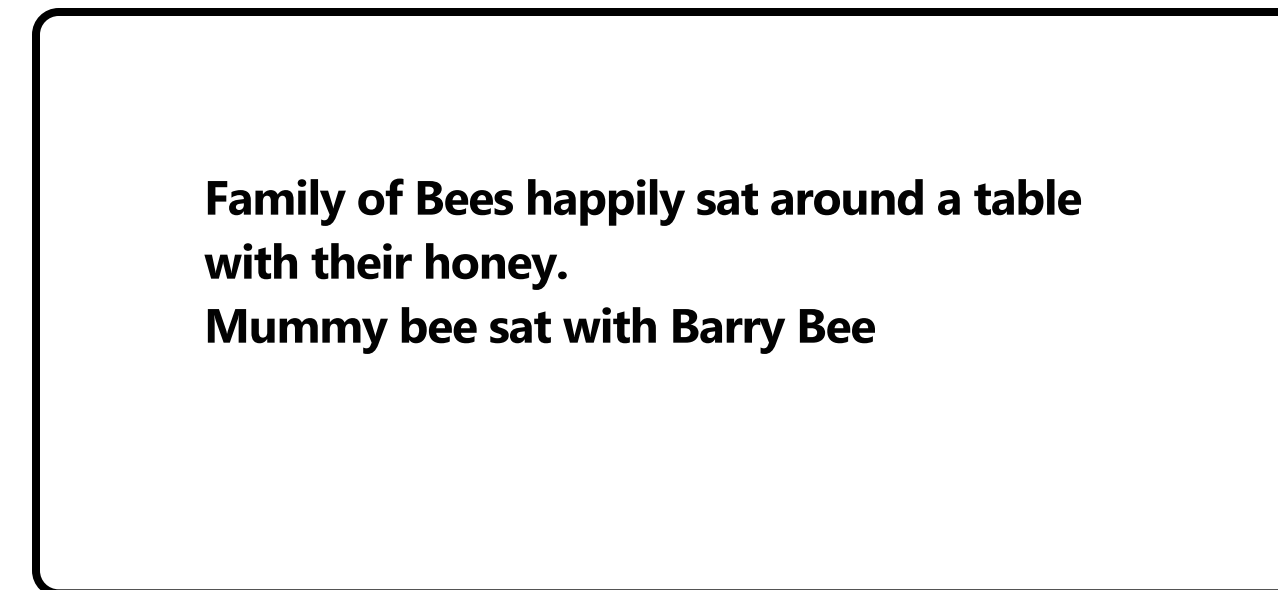

Alfie and Jerry collect nectar from the flowers and fly back to the hive. Alfie and Jerry pass the nectar to Holly the house bee, who puts it in the honeycombs of the hive.

Barry Bee covering the cap

Barry then covers the cap with wax to keep the honey safe.

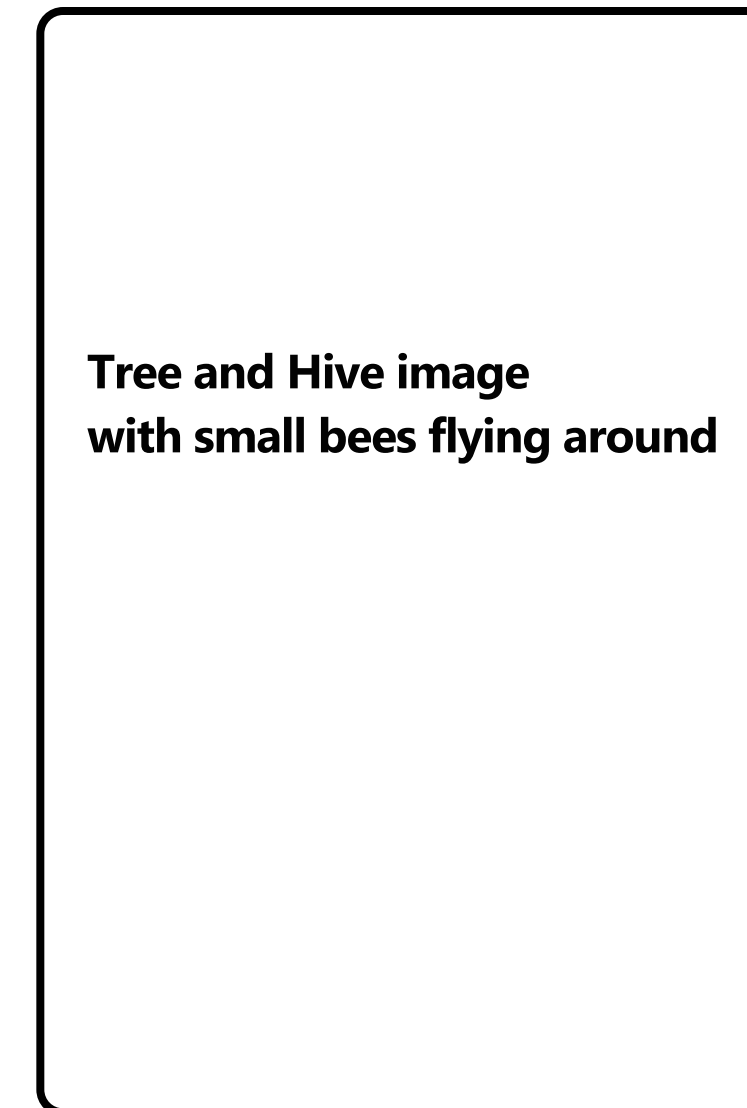

At dinner time, everyone sat around the table and enjoyed their honey.

Family of Bees happily sat around a table with their honey.
Mummy bee sat with Barry Bee

"You see Barry", Mummy bee said,
"It is important that everyone does their part in the team."

SYNOPSIS

Tree and Hive image with small bees flying around